My dear Dean Albers:

You were good enough when I saw you in Boston at the University Law School to say that if there were any other items that I wanted from your records that you would be glad to see that I have them, in case of course it was something that was proper for me to have.

I want a fac-simile of the title page of the Exercises in Practice and Preaching which you and Mr. Young edited.* Could you have your photostat people make it for me sending it to this address with bill? I should greatly appreciate the courtesy.

I hope you are well and that the New Year is opening happily for yourself, your family and your school.

Very sincerely yours

* The newspaper I employed in Berlin on the pamphlet - copied by Mirdler - the little paper of the one published in 1892 - what I want is the one carrying in your name
