Dear Madam:

We suggest that as soon as you have prepared and sent in copy for the notes that you go over the final proofs of front matter and text, sending us all corrections which you wish to have made, including the one mentioned in your letter received this morning.

We are enclosing a slip which we would like to have you sign and send us with these corrections. As soon as the notes have been cast we will write you for corrections for the same.

Very truly yours,
