

My dear Miss Tappan:

Your friendly letter received with joy. I have sent the completed two volumes to Mr. Warren that he may see how they connect up with the parts I have already sent him. I have asked him to look them over and then send them if he thinks best to Mr. Walter Lincoln who ought to be the one to write a companion volume to the Southern Histories if he would be willing to do so and would find any help in any books. Certainly Boston should not be allowed to do this -

We must work together - and get this thing as perfect as possible and as soon as possible - All true lovers of Lincoln must pull - a long & a strong pull together - and we will only thus get the perfect work - I would not care that my name were here mentioned in the work in any way. All I have been able to do for that glorious soul Abraham Lincoln I gladly give if it can help in any way to bring the truth and harmony out of such chaos as Boston has gathered in his books -

Sincerely yours
Catherine Hanson Hattings

Roxbury, July 3 - 1925 -

12th Anniversary of the day when
- George Washington took command of The American Army - due to an hour here -

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Relictier Library