

Lincoln: Pictures

The picture to which Mrs. Judd refers in this letter of March 27th is a^{re}/framed copy of an engraving of a painting by Harry Roseland and that is all I know about it. It would be interesting to know ~~how~~ where he got his material for the furniture,^{the}/books, the lamp. The pen, perhaps^{is}/all right. It is an interesting face.