Dear Miss Tarbell:

Let me thank you, both for Mr. Wells on behalf of the Magazine, and for the Book Department, for your interest in the Browning Diary.

The typescript of the Diary is going to you herewith by messenger. We have endeavored to put it in shape for your convenience in reading, and I think you will find it consecutive and in chronological order.

When you have gone over it, won't you drop me a line? Either Mr.
Wells or I will hold ourselves at your disposal to talk over the possibilities of the material.

Most cordially yours,

William H. Briggs
