N. W. Ayer & Son,
200 Fifth Avenue,
New York City.

Attention of
Mr. A. B. MacKain.

Gentlemen:

We desire to acknowledge receipt of yours of the 3rd inst. in reference to the unauthorized broadcasting by Station W A D C of Miss Tarbell's work entitled "HE KNEW LINCOLN".

Since the time that we received your communication of the 2nd ult., we have been in communication with the owner of Station W A D C. The controversy is still pending, and the matter has not been settled or adjusted in any way.

The owner of Station W A D C admits the unauthorized use of the work upon the occasion referred to, and, although disclaiming knowledge or responsibility for same, regrets the occurrence and has given us his assurance that the infringement will not occur again.

Yours very truly,

Sgd Loeie & Green
