My dear Miss Thornton:

As I told you this afternoon, Miss Ida M. Tarbell is writing a series of articles for us, one of which will deal with industrial insurance. It will simplify her research work no end, I know, to be able to borrow certain books of reference from the Russell Sage Foundation Library.

And this is merely to put myself on record, in black and white, as being duly grateful for your offer to cooperate in any way you can.

Cordially yours,

Lawrence M. Conant
