Dear Mrs. Harris:

How kind of you to remember my Lincoln interest. I am always so glad to have a new piece of any sort. I am more than pleased to have this very well done pamphlet that the Belmont Hosiery Company is sending out. I am filing it with acknowledgment to you in my collection of reproductions of Lincoln portraits. Perhaps I have told you that I am planning to give my Lincoln items to my old college. Everything of this sort is altogether welcome.

Thanking you again.
Love to your sister.

Affectionately

Mrs. Eleanor Harris
