Dear Miss Tarbell -

As I may not be able to call again before I return to Boston, may & leave this in your inspection. Can you tell me anything of this portrait (ambrotype) which I picked up in a Boston old furniture shop 2 years ago. You will remember how you spoke of Lincoln's hairtwicens in regard to his clothes at the time of the Cooper Institute speech - Did dear day of Harold (then in the clothing business) fit him to this new style of hair?
Such as was worn in the sixties. Why does the "waddy" look persist in the cloth as if Lincoln might have sat for this to Geo.
Larkin 39 Court St. Boston whose imprint it bears.
Could painters work (for Campaign Badges) appear so after reproduction. Robert Lincoln had never seen it but was much interested. He said he did not remember
