

120 BROADWAY NEW YORK
ROOM 2555

November 5, 1930.
(Dictated 11/3/30)

Dear Miss Tarbell:

In my absence in Washington last Friday, my secretary, Mr. Riddle, telephoned you that Friday, November 7th, would be quite convenient for Miss Young. This note is merely to confirm the appointment. She will meet you at the Cosmopolitan Club at one o'clock.

I shall be very glad indeed to see you any time before you go to Schenectady. Except for Wednesday of this week and possibly one day next week I expect to be here every day, and my office will make the appointment to suit your convenience. I hope that you are going to let me take care of any arrangements that are to be made for your visit to Schenectady, and we can talk about that when next we meet. I have already written Mr. Trench that you will be up there on the 17th.

Faithfully yours,

Ernest Case
