

Ldu m. i

LIST OF SUBJECTS.

(The following subjects are suggestive. Study and the course of popular interest in American cities may make it wise to change some of them, but no changes will be made save where others more popular and timely can be substituted.)

1. Free Baths: How the Seine is used for the benefit of the poor.
2. Street Cleaning in Paris. What is done with the Dirt. Streets not cleaned. The Sweepers' Drill.
3. The Parisian Tramp and what is done with him.
4. Rapid Transit in Paris.
5. Paris vs. a Snow Storm.
6. Pleasure Riding in Parisian Sewers.
7. Things which cost nothing in Paris.
8. Ticketed for America. French Emigrants at Havre, Boulogne, Marseilles, etc.
9. "Drunk and Disorderly" and how disposed of.
10. How the French keep up their roads.
11. A day with a Paris policeman. His round. His trials. His training. His pay, etc.
12. Sunday Outings.

TERMS.

Price: $6 per letter to be paid after publication, by draft on Paris or French post office order.

Period of Contract: 12 months beginning with September, 1891.

Time of publication: The date marked on each MS. When the paper has no Sunday edition, the article is to appear in the issue of the Saturday night preceding the Sunday designated on the MS.

Illustrations: With each article will be sent 2 to 4 photographs to be used or not, as the editor desires.

Length: Not less than 1,200 words or over 1,500.