

THE UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING
THE LIBRARY
LARAMIE, WYOMING

April 23, 1910

My dear Miss Tarbell;-

Will you please pardon me if I call your attention to an error made by your proof reader in your very able article The American Woman in the American for May? I feel that you may publish so valuable a production in book form and would then be glad to have errors corrected.

Three times on page 73 the publisher makes you say "Mrs. Moore" in place of "Mrs. Morris". I knew Mrs. Morris well and her life history is one full of interest. She and her sons have done much to make Wyoming what it is, they were true pioneer people.

Respectfully,

Grace Raymond Herard