Dear Miss Tarbell---

I am so glad that you are better ---

Mr Burton asked me to write you in regard to the possibility of an article on Josephine Roche. We could not arrive at a definite decision on this because of a talk one of the staff had had with Henry Pringle on the same subject some time ago when Pringle was preparing his series of biographies which we have been publishing.

Now we learn from Mr Pringle that he is working on an article on Miss Roche, which seems all that we can publish on this subject.

Wont you let us know any other ideas that you may have in mind ? We are steadily in need of articles on the American scene.

With best wishes--

Sincerely yours

Dorothy Giles
