Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Mr. Rex Cole was in to-day and, among other things, mentioned that he thought that if you cared to write the life of Mr. Henry L. Doherty he could make the necessary arrangements. He, Mr. Cole, was most enthusiastic about the possibility and thought that you might like to consider it.

Very truly yours,

Arthur Chandler
