JAMESTOWN DEFEATED.

Allegheny Shows Great Improvement. Good Team Work—The Best Game of the Season.

By far the best game of the season was played on Saturday with the Jamestown Athletic Club. It was a game devoid of all unpleasantness and showed what a great and interesting game football is when played as it should be played. There were no accidents, no wrangling, no disputed decisions and time was taken out but seldom.

Allegheny showed great improvement in her playing, a lack of individual effort was noticeable and the team work was greatly improved. The line-up was slightly changed since last game. Leininger played right tackle in place of Young, who is injured, and made a good substitute. Frazier played left tackle and Mook took Frazier's place at half. The line showed great improvement and was never broken by the heavy Jamestown men. The ends ran better than in any previous game. Mook played a sensational game at half, and his long run was perhaps the feature of the game. The other backs played much better than in previous games and aided the runner in all of the plays.

Allegheny kicked off to Jamestown and the ball was advanced to the 45-yard line before the runner was stopped. The net result of three bucks was less than five yards and the ball went to Allegheny on downs. Rist tried a short end run and made two and one-half yards. Frazier tried the same place and gained twenty yards. Mook, Taylor and Wolstoncroft each made five-yard gains and when the 5-yard line was reached Frazier was given the ball and it was carried over for a touchdown, after three minutes of play. Rist kicked the goal and the score was 6-0.

In every game Allegheny has played this year she has carried the ball within a few yards of her opponents goal but on all previous occasions it has been lost on fumbles. It was therefore very gratifying to see a touchdown without a single fumble.

Captain Varley kicked off to Pentz on the 30-yard line, and by clever dodging fifteen yards were gained before the Jamestown men succeeded in downing him. Allegheny's ends and backs now gave a fine exhibition of bucking and end running, and almost every scrimmage produced a sensational play. Gleason and Taylor each ran left end for ten yard gains and Mook broke through tackle for 15. Mook, Taylor, Wolstoncroft and Frazier each added large gains and the ball was taken to the 25-yard line. Allegheny's interference had been almost perfect. The line was holding Jamestown's heavy players and blocking tackles in a way that it has seldom done before. On end runs Allegheny's back field has never made better interference than it did on Saturday and this was wholly responsible for the large gains made. After Frazier, Taylor and Mook had each added a five yard gain Taylor was given the ball and aided by the splendid interference of Pentz and Wolstoncroft he circled the end for an eleven yard run and touchdown. After the goal was kicked the score stood 12-0.

Pentz caught the second kick off and succeeded in jumping over one tackle and succeeded in evading several more, twenty yards being gained before he was downed. Three successive tackle bucks by Mook, Wolstoncroft and Taylor netted seven yards and was followed by the prettiest play of the season. Mook was given the ball for a short end run and aided by fine interference he succeeded in dodging the half and tackle. There was now nothing between him and the goal except the full back, and it seemed as though he would be tackled before he had gained many yards but Williams had broken through the line and came running up the field. He then threw his whole weight on the full back just as he was about to tackle and the two rolled over together while Mook ran the remaining distance for a touchdown. It was a seventy-five yard run, the longest that has been made in any game Allegheny has played this year. When Rist kicked goal the score stood 18-0.

Rist caught a short kick off and gained five yards before he was downed. The ball was now carried up the field in the same manner as before until the 30-yard line was reached. On offside play the ball was given to Jamestown and they at once proceeded to make it first down by a line buck. The second play was a tackle buck and Moynihan broke through the line and started down the field, but Wolstoncroft made a pretty tackle and stopped him before he had gained twenty yards. Fortunately for Allegheny, Jamestown fumbled and Gleason secured the ball. It was again carried back over the lost ground and on the 35 yard line a signal for a goal from the field was given. The pass, however, was poor and the best Pentz could do was fall on the ball. Ten yards had been lost but Frazier regained this on the next scrimmage. Time was called with ball on the 30-yard line.

In the second half Jamestown showed a marked improvement, but could not succeed in holding Allegheny for downs. On the other hand, Allegheny played a much looser game and fumbled several times. Dudley replaced Frazier at left tackle for Allegheny. Pentz gained twenty yards on the kick-off and when the ball was fumbled on the first signal he picked it up and ran around left end for twenty yards. After Gleason had gained seven yards around the end the ball exchanged hands several times on fumbles, but Wolstoncroft finally managed to carry the ball over the line on a ten yard buck. Rist failed for goal and the score was 23-0.

For the fourth time Pentz caught the kick-off and gained fifteen yards by clever dodging. The ball was taken up the field, mostly by end runs. Gleason, Taylor, Mook and Wolstoncroft each gained their distances and Rist circled the end and gained thirty yards before he was tackled. The game was called before the time was up to enable the Jamestown team to catch their train.

The ball was on the 20-yard line when the game was finished.

The Jamestown players are much heavier than Allegheny and are all good players, but they seem to be lacking in team work, probably due to their lack of practice. They are all gentlemen and true sportsmen, however, and unlike the Warren players they never attempted any of the delaying tactics and unsportsmanlike tricks.

The line up was as follows:
Allegheny, 23. Jamestown, 0.
 Gleason.....Right end.....Rushworth
 Williams.....Right tackle.....Moynihan

The Late Judge White.

One of the largest if not the largest, funerals ever held in Sewickley valley, was conducted on Wednesday, November 7, in the Methodist Episcopal church of Sewickley when the remains of President Judge S. W. F. White, of the Common Pleas Court No. 1, were buried. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. J. Hill, assisted by other prominent ministers. Beautiful music was furnished. The services were touching and affecting.

Rev. Mr. Hill spoke touchingly on the life of Judge White, telling of his long residence in Sewickley and of his useful life.

At a meeting of the Allegheny County Bar Association suitable resolutions were adopted. C. C. Dickey, Major A. N. Brown, ex-Judge Christopher Magee, Judge Shafer, George B. Gordon and Homer Castle all spoke of Judge White as they knew him. Many of the members attended the funeral in a body.

Judge Frazier, who has been appointed to succeed him, said of him: "Judge White was a fearless man; he was an honest man and he was a just man. He possessed every quality necessary to make a great judge. He was a tireless worker, every case assigned to him was thoroughly considered and promptly decided. He was a charitable man; although not well off financially much was done by him, although little known of in the way of helping others."

A portion of the resolutions adopted by the Bar Association appears below: "John William Fletcher White was born in Washington county, Pa., on January 19, 1821. He was the son of a Methodist Episcopal minister. He obtained an education solely by his own efforts and was a student of Allegheny College. He studied law at Washington, Pa., in the office of Thomas M. T. McKennan, Esq., and was admitted to the bar in 1844. He practiced law in Washington and for a time conducted a newspaper there until 1851, when he removed to Pittsburgh and began here the practice of the law. About 1860, he formed a partnership with his friend, Jacob F. Slagle, which continued until his election as a judge." The resolutions close thus:

"Having lived a full and active life, in the possession of good health and bodily vigor beyond the lot of most, and having long passed the limit of old age, having nobly done his duty as a servant of the commonwealth, honored by his fellow citizens, revered by the members of his profession, beloved by his friends, and mourned by all, with his faculties unimpaired, without pain and in peace he has passed from among us and thus has lived a life which all should endeavor to live, and died a death which we all hope to die."

"We here record our deep sense of the loss which has come to this community and to this bar and to the judiciary of the county in his death, although we do not perhaps yet fully realize how great a figure has passed away from us. May the memory long remain in our hearts and his example stimulate our lives."

"And so we leave him to his eternal rest in full confidence that somewhere, in some wise, there has been fulfilled for him the beatitude of the pure in heart."

Judge White was a student in Allegheny during the early forties, and received his degree of Doctor of Laws from Allegheny. His loyalty to the old institution has always been strong. He was president of the Pittsburg Alumni Association for some time. At the time of his death, he was a member of the Board of Trustees of the college and had the honor of being next to the oldest member of that board. Judge White has always done a great deal for Allegheny and will be greatly missed from our circle of friends.

Greek is no longer a necessary requirement for entrance to Harvard. History, Modern Language or one of a wide range of scientific subjects may be offered instead.

The spell has been broken and as a result three victories in succession are placed to the credit of the team. As we have struck our winning pace at last, our hopes are high for a good finish of the season. Three hard games are yet to be played, Grove City, Geneva and Westminster, but all are confident of three victories for Allegheny.

What can be done to arouse enthusiasm among our students? All efforts, so far, have proved futile. It has been a long time since Allegheny has been so devoid of all spirit in college institutions of this kind. Formerly foot ball has been the one thing which has started the spirit of loyalty, but this year even this has failed. It is not because our team is poor; it is not because we ourselves are of poorer quality. It is certainly a difficult question to answer, what is the cause and what can be done to remedy this defect?

We all know that college life should be spiced with that feeling which makes us think that every part of our college must lead in competition with other colleges, and we should all do everything in our power to accomplish this end. Now this spirit is what we want to renew. It has existed here and there is no reason why it cannot again be started. Talking will do no good. Organized action is the only thing that will do this. Then let us do something.

It seems that we are compelled to forego the pleasure of a game with Thiel College. It will be remembered that two games were scheduled with Thiel, but they disbanded on account of internal troubles about three days before the date of the first game. By this action they forfeited also the second date, and when Manager Griffith, on hearing of their re-organization, asked them to play in Meadville on the date which had formerly been agreed upon for the game at Greenville, they refused to play unless the regular schedule be lived up to. Now, according to the view taken of this matter by us, we considered that Thiel was really under obligations to us to play here last Saturday; we were willing to give them a return game on the following Wednesday. Great interest is always taken in these games and we regret that matters have turned out as they have, but we feel certain that we have done our part and are justified in doing what we have.

Chapel Seating.

Individual and class seating in chapel, accompanied in many cases by the monitor system, is not universal, although the majority of the best colleges have adopted this plan. Oberlin is one of the exceptions and has trusted the students themselves by holding to the self-reporting system. It seems that there is some agitation at Oberlin over this proposed innovation. The students are making many criticisms. The Oberlin Review contains an article, "A Comparative Analogy," which outlines the regulations of some of the leading colleges of the East and West regarding attendance at church and chapel, class absences, etc. Allegheny is in the number and her rules are quite as stringent as any.

Allegheny vs. Warren.

The fourth game of the season was played on Tuesday last, and goes to Allegheny's credit by the score of 15-0. Although a tedious game, it contained many interesting features and the usual unattractive line bucks and close formation plays were relieved by many end runs and punts. The game was never in doubt and except for the kick-offs the ball was seldom in Allegheny's territory.

Allegheny's play was slightly changed from previous games and contained more open work. Besides the punting, several trick plays were attempted, all of which resulted in gains. The team showed improvement in defensive play; the center men in particular, who held the heavy line of the visitors, did much better work than in any previous game. The only change in line up was the substitution of Mook for Taylor, who was absent from college. Mook played an excellent game in defensive work and bucked well.

Allegheny kicked off and Gleason got the ball on the 30-yard line. Then followed a comedy of errors. After five fumbles and two blocked kicks, the ball was in almost the same spot it started from. Allegheny finally managed to make a first down without fumbling and then Frazier, Mook and Wolstoncroft took the ball over the intervening thirty yards for gains averaging over five yards, and after eight minutes of play, Wolstoncroft bucked through center for the first touchdown of the game. Rist missed the goal. Score, 5-0.

On the second kick-off, Douglas gained fifteen yards and brought the ball near the center of the field. Allegheny's backs had gained fifteen yards through the tackles when Warren got the ball on a fumble on their 50-yard line. They regained ten yards but lost a yard on an attempted end run and Hardy was forced to punt. Neither Pentz nor Wolstoncroft could get under the ball and it rolled over the goal before Wolstoncroft finally got it. Instead of touching it down he waited until Frazier came up and the two started down the field, Frazier interfering; fifty yards were gained before Wolstoncroft was tackled. The Warren team claimed it was a touch-back and refused to continue the game if the play was allowed. Rather than have them quit the field, Capt. Frazier wisely allowed the ball to be brought out twenty-five yards and play was continued from that point.

The ball was now brought slowly up the field by the backs and tackles, mostly for short gains. When the 35-yard line was reached, there was but a few minutes to play, so it was decided to try a field goal. Little Rist was called in from end and before the Warren men knew what Allegheny was about the ball was sailing between the goal posts and the score stood 10-0.

The second half was a repetition of the first, except that but one touch-down was made. Frazier and Rist each made long end runs and Hardy repeatedly kept his team from being scored upon by his long punts. The last touchdown was made after eleven minutes of play and resulted from a thirty yard run by Frazier around the end. The remainder of the game was remarkable only for the time consumed in playing it.

No fault is to be found with Allegheny's play except her fumbles and if this is not remedied, the team will lose more games as a result. Had it not been for fumbles the score on Tuesday would have been much larger. Allegheny's men played a uniformly excellent game, and in defensive work a marked improvement is noticeable. The line held well and end runs were impossible.

The Warren team played a scrappy game in the face of defeat, but their delaying tactics won them the disrespect of the crowd. Almost every scrimmage found a Warren man groaning on the ground and after time had been called for several minutes he would resume his position as if nothing had occurred. Hardy, their right half back, played a wonderful game, and but for his help the game would have been a walkover for Allegheny. The line-up was as follows:

Allegheny—15	Warren—0
Gleason.....Right end.....	Gillmer
Young.....Right tackle.....	Houghton
McCartney.....Right guard.....	Brown

'80. Arthur L. In 1882 he was admitted to the bar after spending two years with Joshua Douglass, Esq., in reading law. In 1884, he went to England, where he studied for a short time in Oxford University. Those of the students who were here last year will remember the interesting remarks which Mr. Bates made in chapel. For many years Mr. Bates has taken a prominent place in Republican politics. He filled the position of president in the Young Men's Republican Club and afterwards in the Columbia Club. He is an Odd Fellow and a Mason besides being a member of the National Society of Sons of the American Revolution. He is a director of the New First National Bank of this city.

Mr. Bates was vice-president of the National Republican League and was an alternate delegate to the Republican National Convention in 1888. He was City Solicitor of Meadville for four terms.

In view of Mr. Bates' preparation for his future duties in Congress, the students in Allegheny College look forward to his career as one worthy of winning laurels for this institution. In turn for this the student body, without an exception, heartily greet Congressman Bates with praises and untold wishes for his success.

ALLEGHENY COLLEGE HONORED.

Dr. W. H. Crawford Selected as One of the Judges for the Hall of Fame for Great Americans.

One hundred judges have been selected for the Hall of Fame for Great Americans. Twenty-five are presidents of colleges and universities, and three of these are from Pennsylvania. In the list published by the New York University they are in the following order: President William H. Crawford, of Allegheny College; Provost C. C. Harrison, of the University of Pennsylvania, and President M. Carey Thomas, of Bryn Mawr College. Two of these are in the eastern part of the state and one in the western.

In the list of one hundred judges, five are from Pennsylvania; four from the eastern part and one from the western. The selection of President Crawford as the only representative of Western Pennsylvania is a mark of distinction which is highly appreciated by the students and friends of the institution over which he so ably presides.

The enrollment of students at Dartmouth for the present year is the largest in the history of the college, 633.

The entering class at Wesleyan College, Middletown, Conn., is 108. The efforts of the trustees to keep down the attendance of women have partially succeeded, as there are but twenty women in the entering class.

Oberlin has abolished the entrance requirement of a third language, namely, French or German, for admission to the classical and philosophical courses.

AMONG THE COLLEGES.

At a mass meeting the students at Michigan raised $2,295.50 for foot ball purposes.

Out of 472 colleges in the United States, 370 have an enrollment of less than 150 students.

Harvard has established a fixed system of pensions for retired professors of that institution.

The authorities of Yale are much disappointed at the small size of the Freshman class this year.

E. Benjamin Andrews was formally inaugurated chancellor of the University of Nebraska on September 22.

The faculty of Columbia University comprises 390 professors and instructors. Last year they numbered 371.

At a special meeting held by the students of Amherst College last week, it was voted 296-33 to abolish the cane rush.

Mt. Union has this last summer improved the University building by putting in a steam heating system. The cost was about $6,000.

At the University of Pennsylvania a war memorial tower has recently been erected in memory of those who fell in the late war with Spain.

The sermon of President Hadley, of Yale, in the Battell chapel, marks the first time in the history of Yale that a layman has occupied the pulpit.

The trustees of the University of Chicago recently decided to give free tuition to ten of the Porto Ricans who wish to be educated in this country, provided their living expenses are furnished by public spirited citizens.

Harvard is meeting with many adverse circumstances this year in the form of accidents to players. Among others, Hollowell, her star end, has been injured so that he will probably be kept out of the game the entire season.

The abolition of compulsory church attendance does not appear to lessen the number of students at the church on the Hill, Sunday mornings. There seems to be better order this term, and a more respectful attention to the service.—Bowdoin Orient.

Miami University has been closed and the students ordered home on account of an epidemic of typhoid fever. The son of the president, Dr. Tappan, died Saturday night, and the number of serious cases of the disease among the students is alarming.

A new branch of work has been started at Yale, known as the department for self help. It is under the supervision of one of the professors, who has regular office hours, during which he will see any students who desire information as to how they may find ways of self-support while in college.

Yale is out for the foot ball championship with the brightest prospects she has had in three years. Her rush line will be the heaviest she has had in a decade and is expected to be impregnable. Richard Sheldon, the champion weight thrower, is expected to return to college to pay his old position at guard. Yale's only serious loss is that of full-back McBride.

According to the latest catalogue of the ten leading American universities their relative numerical strength is as follows: Harvard, 5,250; Columbia, 3,729; Washington, 3,346; Yale, 2,688; Pennsylvania, 2,656; Cornell, 2,645; Wisconsin, 2,025; Chicago, 1,680; Princeton, 1,194; Johns Hopkins, 632.

Chapel Talk.

Friday morning an interesting chapel talk was given by John Willis, of Boston. Mr. Willis is an Ohio Wesleyan graduate but has been connected with the publishing of the Youth's Companion in Boston for some time.

Mr. Willis spoke of the traditions of New England and the intelligent atmosphere that pervades Boston and surroundings. He said that men could not be compelled to be good in this age, but must be won, and that by an ideal. This was the theme of his short talk. He gave as his idea that all problems, economical or otherwise, must be settled from the standpoint of ethics. That the appeal of the ideal must be the great influence.

Mr. Willis is certainly a very pleasing speaker, and carries with him an air that puts the listener completely at ease.

Friday afternoon Mr. Willis lectured at the Unitarian School. His subject was "Christian Science."

The faculty of the University of Texas is considering the problem of shortening the school session because of the heat of May and June.

President Crawford,
Meadville, Pa.

Isn't that a pretty little red hat?
We beat Grove City once; it will be easy again.

Psychology now meets only four times a week.

Allegheny plays foot ball at Grove City Saturday.

In Prep. English—"They were in cahoots with one another."

Dr. Crawford attended the funeral of Judge White on Wednesday.

The Warren team certainly had the art of "soldiering" down to perfection.

As predicted by the Campus, McKinley has been re-elected by a large majority.

As Frazier put it, "the Warren players were very susceptible to injury."

W. F. Hovis, of East Chicago, was a guest, at Phi Delta Theta House on Thursday.

Athletic club teams are different from college teams. Draw your own conclusions.

Prof. Dutton is so fond of mathematics that he confines his Bible reading to the Book of Numbers.

Douglass operated the lantern for a stereopticon lecture in one of our nearby towns last Friday night.

Poor Bryan says he will stay in poittes until death. It is a shame that we all do not have such nerve.

Wanted—Several good men to start "rooting" on the side lines. Experience, of course, is a good recommendation.

At the foot ball game—"What is in the jug?"

"It must be water; Douglass spit it out."

Dr. Montgomery—"Bird, did any of your congregation ever go to sleep while you were preaching?"

Bird—"Yes, one."

We trust that the students will take the advice of Dr. Thomas. If the boys do not take you to the next game, girls, take them.

Who would have suspected our Physical Director of this? "When you are drunk you can sober yourself quickly by standing on your head."

Harris, who believes that intemperance is the source of much of our crime, went home to vote for Wooley and the rest of the Prohibition ticket.

The story of the donkeys that went South to teach school made a great bit with Prof. Dutton. Perhaps it reminded him of the time he left college to teach.

Willis made the visitor's usual mistake of addressing the funny story to the Seniors and facing the Preps, while making some ethical or psychological remark,

The Classical Club will meet to-night.
William J. Bryan—two times and out.

"By the way" we have a new slate roof.

Allegheny vs. Grove City at Grove City Saturday.

Miss Mary Breene was a visitor at Hulings Hall over Sunday.

Frank Matteson was at the Phi Gamm House over Sunday.

Phi Kappa Psi fraternity pledged Clifford Scott Saturday night.

How many students will go with the team to Grove City Saturday.

Did "Skin and Bones" initiate last Wednesday night?

Miss Theo White is a guest at the home of Mrs. Archibald Irvin.

Jamestown played as clean a game as has been witnessed in Meadville.

What a difference between the two games last week. Jamestown played very clean, but how about Warren?

The City Restaurant is at present dishing up a fine line of oysters. Call around and see them. Chestnut street.

The Glee Club will sing at Cambridge Springs on Friday evening, and at Union City on Saturday evening.

A Westminster girl to one of our freshmen—"Accept congratulations upon the number of fine looking people who were down here at the foot ball game from Allegheny."

Alpha Chi Omega held an initiation Monday, November 5. The Misses Caroline Beyer, Myrtle Dunbar, Marian Miller and Mary Roberts all rode the Alpha Chi goat.

Franklin reports the largest score of the season against Jefferson, O., 149-0, in 20 and 10 minute halves. If this be a true statement, Franklin deserves congratulations.

Boys, call and see the Mendel Bros. when in need of any clothes. They will give you a square deal. They are just around the corner from Chestnut street on Water street.

As the result of betting on Mr. Bryan, Culbertson wore a mackintosh and straw hat to college for two days. He got good odds but his politics did not stand by him.

Capt. Frazier and Coach Heckl are debating whether it would be desirable to issue a specially written invitation to each member of the second team, requesting the pleasure of his presence at foot ball practice at 4:00 p. m., every day.

No second team was out all last week. For the sake of the College, of athletics, and of your own reputation you men ought to give the first team a chance to line up in practice. Where is your back-bone? Where is your nerve?

Dr. Thomas predicted that Saturday's game would prove which is superior, science or brute force. Science surely demonstrated its power.

We record a loss in betting to Wade who placed too much confidence in Mr. Bryan. And so he must wheel Craig up to college on a wheelbarrow. Oh! such fun. But Wade now thinks it would be better to have lost coin than his Senior "dignity."

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD OR OUR SAVIOUR IN ART.

Cost nearly $100,000 to produce. Contains nearly 100 full-page engravings of our Saviour and His Mother by the world's greatest painters. True copies of the greatest masterpieces in the art galleries of Europe. Every picture is as beautiful as a sunrise over the hills. Contains description of the paintings, biography of the painters, the names and locations of the galleries in Europe where the originals may be seen. Also contains a Child's Department, including a Child's Story of the Christ and His Mother, beautifully written, to fit each picture. This wonderful book, matchless in its purity and beauty, appeals to every mother's heart, and in every Christian home where there are children the book sells itself. Christian men and women are making money rapidly taking orders. A Christian man or woman can in this community soon make $1,000 taking orders for Christmas presents. Mrs. Waite, our agent in Massachusetts, has sold over $3,000 worth of the books in a very short time. Mrs. Sackett, our agent in New York, has sold over $1,500 worth of the books in a very short time. The book is printed in velvet-finished paper, beautifully bound in Cardinal Red and Gold, and adorned with Golden Roses and Lilies. It is, without doubt, the most beautiful book of this century. Write for terms quickly and get the management of that territory. You can work on salary or commission, and when you prove your success we will promote you to the position of Manager and Correspondent, at a permanent salary, to devote your time to attending to agents and the correspondence.
