My dear Miss Tarbell:

Your friend and mine, my Eva Dean, who was a member of our faculty here last year, informs me that you are going to visit Tucson this winter. This is very pleasing news to Mrs. Lockwood and me; and I write to say that I hope you will let me know at as early a date as possible when you are coming. You doubtless remember that I was head of the English department at Allegheny College for fourteen years and that we had the pleasure of meeting you in Meadville once or twice. I have been one of your admirers for many years and am very glad that you are coming to Tucson. I shall be glad to do anything in my power to make your visit here agreeable.

I have taken the liberty to send you a little book just published entitled Tucson - The Old Pueblo. It may help you to get ready to enjoy our town - though it has little to say about modern Tucson.

Trusting that I may have a line or two from you before long, I am

Yours Sincerely,

Frank C. Lockwood
