Dear Miss Tarbell:

As perhaps you know, I spent last year on a trip around the world, returning to America about the first of September. Since then I have not bothered you about the progress of your volume because I understood from Mr. Brett that you would have it ready for delivery by November 1. Since it has not yet come to me, I am now writing to express the hope that you are nearing the end of your task and that I may receive the manuscript sometime within the next week or so. There are only three volumes yet to be published and there is a particular demand for your volume since it covers the same years as my own.

Hoping that this letter finds you in the best of health, I am

Sincerely yours,

A. M. Schlesinger
