

Thursday evening

Dear Miss Tarbell,

I enclose you copy of a letter received from Mrs Hitchcock - also of a letter which I have written to her. She shuts up like a clam. If my letter does not open her shell we may as well conclude there is nothing in it and go our ways.
I have half thought all the time that she had nothing of value.

Yours truly

W. H. Chittenden

Miss Ida Tarbell
Resent.