Miss Ida Tarbell,
130 E. Nineteenth Street,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Thanks for yours of September 26th, also for yours of July 23rd, giving me your reference to Leonard Swett's article in "Reminiscences of Abraham Lincoln by Distinguished Men of His Time," page 459.

The fifty mile limit referred to by Lincoln would take in Corydon, Vincennes, Princeton, Evansville, and come within a mile or two of taking in New Harmony according to an offhand measurement made by me on the map.

Am very glad to get the above mentioned reference as it answers exactly my purpose. Some time I may tell you why I wanted it, and possibly may be in New York one of these days, in which event I shall be very glad to call on you.

Sincerely yours,

John E. Iglehart
