

May 22, 1937

Dear Mr. Brown;

I should like to talk with you about Mr. Lincoln's visit in New York City in 1859. But I doubt if I can add anything to what you already know, but no doubt you can add to my knowledge. At least the matter interests me.

The only free time I have in the coming week will be Tuesday, the 25th. Could you come down to the National Arts Club at one o'clock and lunch with me? And then we can talk the matter over. If this is convenient telephone me - Algonquin 4-6674 - any morning before twelve thirty.

Very sincerely yours

Mr. Henry C. Brown
Murray Hill Hotel
New York City