

April 30, 1925

Mr. James Shaw,
Aurora, Ill.

My dear Mr. Shaw:

Thank you for your letter of April 22.
It interests me very much. The next issue of McClure's contains my chapter on Judge Gary as a lawyer.

I wish you would write your recollections of him in the Aurora courts. If you could give me something, not too long,
I think it would be interesting to publish it in the magazine.
Will you do this?

Sincerely yours,
