

REV. H. E. WING

Bedford Ct March 14 1855

Dear Friend;

Your letter from Washington, just received, brought me such relief, that I cannot resist the impulse to give some expression of my intense satisfaction.

It is strange that I did not get that letter of yours, if it was sent to Wash Redding they have been very foolish in forwarding my mails.
I certainly will be glad to get a transcript of it, as you suggest, at your convenience.

Perhaps you will find time, to you, send something before Christmas. It contained an account of our interview with Lincoln, when I took a boy to him, whom Gen. Patrick has sentenced to to prison, his treatment of the boy's mother Suggests the title? Lincoln is pleased to meet a holy

3

REV. H. E. WING

If you do not find this, could care for it, I can make a copy. But my copy will be at West Redding, where we expect to go in a fortnight.

Dear Mr. Wing, in connection with my Lincoln Day address ^{was it a} ~~was it a~~ church, on Sunday evening, could I shake permanency of Lincoln's Religious Character & The High Warnings' mail brought me the "Christian Advocate". With your article, in which it appears that he has been chosen to best represent the Christian spirit of the 19th century, in that ^{the} ~~the~~ "Controversy".
Had I known that, what force it would have added to my entirely of him!

Well, I am very grateful to you for this kind letter; and, know that my chief anxiety is relieved. If you will please take your time in following the business of the Very sincerely yours
H. E. Wing