

Dear Miss Tarbell:

You will please me when I tell you that I am the youngest daughter of Harriet Howe Barton - I have just been reading the article in today's N. Y. Time which speaks of your birthday on Friday - May I add my congratulations and best wishes to the many you will receive? -

My husband and I are here for a time doing special work at Columbia - We were in England all summer spending most of our time at Oxford and Edinburg -

If I would not be intruding on your busy life I should consider it a great joy to call on you whenever it would be convenient - I remember many things concerning your family or my mother used to tell us many incidents - I remember especially her glowing

Account of a visit with your father and mother at Chautauque.

My address is 99 Claremont Ave
Apt 512. My telephone Monument
2-7100.

Sincerely
(Mrs E. C.) Bessie B. Hanley.

October 31.
