

Pittsboro, Conn.,

Sept 1, 1916.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Your letter of Aug 29th reached me last evening and I was very glad to receive word from you.

I will send the letters, as you request, to Bethel Conn on Monday, the 4th inst. I have no duplicate of the letters, but will page you again loss or misarrangement. I ought to see you, to tell you fully about them.

Of course the contents of the letters will show their value and importance.

I will also send the proposal for your editorial judgment. It was written with a view of publishing the letters as a Supplement, and by dropping the first paragraph, the letters
