

American Express
Florence, August 23

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I should very much like to do your letters and notes, but you have asked me at a time when I have not as much free time as sometimes. However, if tomorrow, Tuesday, afternoon would suit you, I could come to your hotel at any hour convenient to you, though not as late as 7.30. I am also free on Thursday, and could come in the morning, if you prefer. I have not a telephone where I am living, so if you can leave a note at the American Express so I can get it early tomorrow afternoon,

I shall appreciate it.

With thanks for your inquiry,
I am

Yours very truly,
Louise Jackson
