

Dear Miss Chandler:

<sup>see</sup> Yes, Mr. Crocker's manuscript was sent to me on Saturday and I hope to send them back to you not later of Monday of next week.

As to the quotations from my interview with Mr. Crocker I submitted the interview to him and have his corrections. I have used only such paragraphs as seem to me entirely innocuous. As a matter of fact I cannot conceive of Mr. Crocker saying anything about Mr. Young which could be annoying. The only criticism might be that he over-emphasizes, that is, for publication-qualities in Mr. Young which everybody recognize.

I shall write Mr. Crocker at once.

Very sincerely

Miss Gertrude Chandler
