

MRS. C. W. APPLETON
BEDFORD HILLS
WESTCHESTER CO. N. Y.

Del. Bedford
Village

Dear Miss Tarbell,

Had hoped to tempt you a dinner invitation when Mr.
Appleton was home, so as to hear about progress of Mr.

Young's life. He has been here so intermitantly that I despair.

Jean Siddall is coming over from Lappan with Mrs.

Morgan, Sat & Thursday, July 23rd, and would if you are free to come, too.

lunch at 1 to 2, according as they arrive. I have a dire recollection hearing you had a country place but far, but can't locate it in telephone book. If in city there is a train at U.S. on Parlem division that we can meet you, and take you to station for any train you wish. Could also, so for you, if in Connecticut near Westph.
Jew looks well, but walks rather painfully to see.
I looked for you in Van Hornesville at reading. Hoping to see you,
Sincerely,
Harriet Appleton,
July 16.
