Dear Mr. Albrecht:

We have had a request from Basil Mathews of our World's Committe in Geneva for permission to translate THE BOY SCOUTS LIFE OF LINCOLN for use in Czecho-Slovakia. I do not know whether you have heard of our plans. We are trying to develop a real boys' literature in a number of these countries where practically nothing has been done. Czecho-Slovakian boys have no "hero" literature at all due to the fact that their heroes have been proscribed revolutionists. In building up this literature all publishers so far including ourselves have granted this privilege of translating freely. Of course, there is no money in the scheme anyway. I wonder if Macmillan would grant the same privilege?

The Boy Scouts are quite willing.

Very sincerely yours,

Frederick Harris
