September 18, 1928.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York, New York.

My dear Miss Tarbell:-

Under separate cover I am sending you copies of as many of our bulletins as are still available. Numbers 1, 2 and 5 have been out of print for some time and I do not know where copies can now be obtained. There will be no charge whatever.

I am still expecting to publish the collection of new Lincoln letters but I am afraid that I cannot get the manuscript ready in time for February publication. In fact, I think I shall be doing rather well if I can get it to the publishers by the first of the year. In that case I do not suppose it will appear before late spring. I really should like to have the letters that Mr. Tracy turned over to you but I do not want you to give them to me if it will embarrass you in any way. I shall have plenty of material as it is--more in fact than I think I can use. I wish you would be guided by your own interests in this matter.

Very sincerely yours,

Paul M. Angle.
