

Nov. 23, 1922

Dr. Fred W. Hixson,
Allegheny College,
Meadville, Pa.

My dear Dr. Hixson:

If you think my proposed Lincoln address will do for Founders' Day, I think you may count on me. I will try to adapt it for the occasion.
Possibly I may have an inspiration?

I just returned to New York and find the announcement for the Allegheny banquet on December 8. I am so glad that you are to be here and that we are to hear about the college, as well as to meet you again.

Very sincerely yours,