Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
132 East 19th street,
New York.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

We have recently moved up here and I imagine that even if all the old Lincoln correspondence was kept at our Fourth Avenue office until we transferred our quarters, it was destroyed before we came up to Forty-fourth Street. I had no knowledge of its existence in our files, and Miss Miller who had charge of such things tells me that she doesn't know where it is. It seems too bad that such valuable data should be lost. I am sorry I cannot give you a pleasanter report.

Faithfully yours,

Charles Hanson Towne
