

HARVARD UNIVERSITY
DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY
CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

415 Widener Library,
November 30, 1935.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I have nearly completed my study of the last of the batch of chapters which I retained. I should now like to have chapter vii, "The Farmer's Protest," and chapter viii, "National Consolidation of Labor," and, at your early convenience, the unnumbered chapter entitled "Reforming from Within."

Yours sincerely,

A. M. Schlesinger

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East Nineteenth St.,
New York City.