Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East Nineteenth Street,
New York City, New York.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I happened to have handy a few copies of photostats which I had made for various purposes and these I am glad to send you.

Mr. Alexander W. Hannah who has a small but very interesting collection of Lincoln and has a very fine letter relating to "The House Divided" gave me copies of photostats of his collection. Since receiving your letter, I asked him if I might send them to you and he said I could, so you will find these enclosed with my photostats.

Unfortunately my collection is not readily accessible. When I get the opportunity to send you more photostats, I will be very glad to do so.

I am pleased to know that some day you expect to visit Chicago and I will be very glad to see you.

Yours very sincerely,

ORB:LK
