My dear Miss Tarbell:

By this time you will have heard from Mr. Jaccaci, who is looking after illustrative material for the new magazine. We are straining every nerve in getting out the magazine and we hope in time to properly reward our friends. Meantime, I hope that you will be able to give him suggestions and assistance and also to get good ideas into your head for magazine articles.

Very sincerely yours,

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,

17 rue Malebranche, Paris, France.
