Dear Mr. Hertz:

I seem always to have had luck with the invitations of the Lincoln Fellowship - I am already tied up professionally on the twelfth*, speaking morning and afternoon on the radio. That makes it out of the question for me to go on the radio at your lunch. Moreover, my hours are such that I should have to leave by a little after two o'clock.

I am so sorry, dear Mr. Hertz. Believe me, I would do this if as I say I was not already tied up professionally.

Faithfully yours
