

120 BROADWAY NEW YORK
ROOM 2555

February 24, 1932.
(Dictated 2/23/32)

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I want to thank you for the opportunity of participating in the very interesting discussion we had at luncheon on Friday. I was particularly sorry to have to run away right in the midst of it, and sorry too that the knowledge that I had to leave—I should like to blame it on that - made me do so much of the talking. So much was said in so short a time on such a variety of subjects that I look forward to seeing how it all looks in type when you have had an opportunity to assimilate it and work it into shape.

We had a fine week-end at Van Hornesville, and it did Jo so much good that I have persuaded her to stay up there for the rest of this week. When we are back she says that she hopes you will try her cooking some evening soon.

Faithfully yours,

Ernest Case

Miss Ida Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.

Digitized Images, 2011. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pellerier Library.