My dear Miss Tarbell:-

I am in receipt of your favor of May 1st and note your reasons for not replying more promptly to my letter. I quite understand that a busy woman like you are can only attend to her correspondence at certain periods. There is no immediate haste about this matter, but I feel sure there is money in it for both of us, if you can discover some unpublished Lincoln material, notably letters. I will correspond with Mr. Emerson and let you know later the result.

Trusting when you come to New York you will honor me with a call in my new book shop.
I am,

Yours very truly,

Ernest Dressel North
