

LADIES' HOME JOURNAL
The Curtis Publishing Company

Bruce Gould
Beatrice Blackmar Gould
Editors
PHILADELPHIA
November 22, 1937

Dear Mrs. Tarbell:

Thank you for your kind permission to reprint part of your remarks. I heard a number of people speak of that interview. They all seem to have had the same reaction I did - a really warm sense of fellow feeling in reading it.

With best wishes, I am

Very truly yours,

BG:J

Mrs. Ida M. Tarbell
120 East 19th Street
New York, New York

P.S.: — When you get that autobiography written I hope you let me see it with an eye to the Journal.