My dear Miss Tarbell:

Needless to tell you I am greatly pleased with an autographed copy of your latest and very readable book. You are most thoughtful!

I have learned much

that I did not know

and in another
reading shall learn much more.

As Mrs. Yarny
has other copies of her photograph, I am sure that she is glad to have you keep that one
if you wish.

When you are back from the
