Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
New York.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

This will acknowledge the receipt of my copy of Chandler's "Elements of Character."

It was just like you, I think, to send back with it a letter that will make me the envy of every collector who sees it, and that will add tremendously to the value of my book. I thank you.

I do not wish to bore you with my stuff, even though Mr. Jacob has got some of it out in splendid style -- all at his own expense. I think, however, that I shall ask you to accept a copy of our "Lincoln and Greeley" pamphlet. You will agree, I am sure, that it is beautifully printed, and I hope you will think the text not altogether bad -- for an amateur.

(1791) The receipt today of a good copy of Dilworth's "Spelling Book",¹ pleased me greatly.

With every good wish, I remain,

Yours very sincerely,

M. R. Housner
