

Mary Austin - Women

was so
Mary Austin/occupied with the marvel of her own intellectual and spiritual ^{processes} ~~privacy~~ ^{that - she could not realize that}. There were those about her (in the past certainly) who ^{had} enjoyed the same ^{processes} ~~privacy~~ that she did - equal genius - had the same ~~thought to the~~ answer ^{to} of prayer as she did.
Their technique was far less mechanized than hers. She did not see this, that is wherein her genius lay - complete absorption in the ^{work} ~~mode~~ of her own ^{mind} ~~method~~.

In connection with ~~the~~ comments on Mary Austin's ideas on prayer quote from A. M. C. letter of October 31st, 1935 filed with this note. ^{an epheuading cult}
