

January 31, 1927.

Mr. Russell Bridges,
Alkahest Lyceum System,
Atlanta, Ga.

My dear Mr. Bridges:

I have just received your letter of January 28th telling me that you have booked me for a March engagement with the American Association of University Women in Birmingham, Ala. This is the first that I have heard of of it, dear Mr. Bridges, and it is utterly impossible for me to go South this Spring. I am tied up with more work than I can do. I have had to practically give up speaking because of my regular professional work. If I had known two months ago I would have planned it, but as things are now, I cannot do it. I am extremely sorry.

Sincerely yours,

INT BWA.