Dear Miss Tarbell;

I certainly do think there is some very excellent material in the notes you sent me with your letter of the 23rd, and if you will be kind enough to work them up the result will be more than welcome for "Leadership."

You may be interested in knowing that so far Mrs. Beard, who accepted the editorship, has secured the promises of eight of the twenty women to whom she wrote. The section will be a most interesting one, I am sure, the more so since we are to have the pleasure of including your material.

Your notes are enclosed.

Very sincerely,

Godfrey Irwin
